The Story - Chapter 31, The End of Time

GETTING STARTED _____

1. What did you think about the chalk drawing from this past Sunday? Was there anything that caught your attention or that you learned from it?
2. What are some warning signs you've avoided in the past? How can we better identify warning signs in the future?
3. Consider God's upper story and our lower story. What are the moments in your life you have seen them intersect? Share them with your group or list in the space below.

DIGGING DEEPER _____

1. Seeing the book of Revelation mapped out on Sunday was incredible. What was something you learned from this past weekend and Pastor Jeff Walling?
2. When you get to heaven, are there questions you would like to ask (i.e., questions about creation, life, death or the end of days). What are they and why is that important to you?
3. Read Revelation 2 and 3 out loud as a group. Obviously, this was written for specific churches, but they are made up of people. What is most convicting for you as you read these letters?

What do you think the Church today should take notice of?

4. How would you define the word hypocrite? Do you see any evidence of hypocrisy in your life or in the life of others? If so, what is it?

Does the warning to the churches help us evaluate our lives, especially the times they don't line up with what Jesus has called us to be?

PRACTICAL APPLICATION _____

1. Read Revelation 22:6-21. Does this passage give you a sense of urgency for your friends and family that are far from Jesus?

How are we, as a group, doing in our approach to the end times? Would outsiders say we live with urgency? How can we do better?
